

NINETY-FOURTH DISTRICT.

Wood and Rains counties; Wood the returning county.—A. L. Adams, of Hawkins, Wood county, was born near Knoxville, Tennessee, October 10, 1828; received an ordinary English education; moved to Texas and settled in Wood county, where he commenced the occupation of a farmer; elected to the House as a Democrat, by a vote of about 1700, to about 700 cast for J. Morrow, Greenbacker. Mr. Adams died in the city of Austin, March 15, 1882, while in attendance as a member, and his remains were escorted to his late home by a committee of the House.